MR. DOOLITTLE'S SPEECH.
Judge Doolittle addressed a large audience at Lippin's hall last evening on "a little of everything." The issue of the campaign he prominently discussed was the National banks. He wants them abolished, but why he would abolish them and take their notes out of circulation, he does not give any substantial reason. His argument is that of a demagogue, and not that of a statesman. The Judge made himself appear ridiculous to the intelligent part of his audience by stating that Rock county would save $10,000 a year by having the bank system abolished. Judge Doolittle knows, as well as every man of ordinary sense knows, that Rock county would be benefitted by no such sum were the banks to surrender their charters. Judge Doolittle knows, as well as all intelligent readers know, that were the banks abolished, it would be an actual loss to the people of Rock county. Why? Because banks pay more taxes than any other kind of property. Doolittle said last night the only tax they paid to the Government was one per cent on their circulation, whereas they pay one per cent on their deposit, also. Of course it would have spoiled the Judge's argument to have made mention of this.

The Judge, while he argues for the abolition of the banks, he does not undertake to show how the Government currency, which he would substitute for the National bank notes, would effect the business of the country. He knows that such a substitution would be detrimental to public interests. He knows that it would be unconstitutional. He knows that it would make redemption impossible, and would compel the country to launch out again upon the sea of irredeemable paper money, an event which would unsettle all values and make times worse instead of better. He also knows that the national bank currency possesses what can be properly called elasticity; that is, its quantity is wholly regulated by the requirements of business. This is not the case with Government paper. The latter would be subject to the whims of Congress, and the effect would be that business of all kinds, and labor of all kinds, would be in a far worse condition than now. Judge Doolittle knows enough to know that a Government currency would be subject to inflation or contraction by politicians, and that there could be no stability or certainty about it. Under the present system, business regulates the volume; when money is needed, the banks will issue more. At the present time the banks are entitled to 65 millions of notes more than they have issued, and whenever National banking becomes profitable, and when business requires that the volume of currency shall be increased, the banks will take advantage of the opportunity and will give the country the 65 millions.

Judge Doolittle looks at this question of National bank currency and Government notes or certificates, through very poor glasses. His demagogism leads him to write and speak things which he knows he should write and speak. He tries to deceive the people instead of enlightening them. He won't state the truth because that would be detrimental to Mr. Parker's cause. He won't say that the National banking system is the cheapest, the safest, and the best we ever had. He won't say that under the State bank system we had breakdowns and general suspensions in 1839, 1844, 1849, 1853, 1857, 1859, 1861, and 1867, resulting in the loss of hundreds of millions of dollars to bill holders and causing indescribable disaster and confusion to business; and he won't say that out National banking system has been in existence fifteen years, that it has passed through a terrible financial crisis, and that not a single note holder has lost a cent! Judge Doolittle should be honest enough to state these important and interesting facts.

BABBITT AGAIN TO THE FRONT.
Mr. Clinton Babbitt, of Beloit, still holds the fort. His faith is honest money and can't be shaken. He is still determined to vote for Mr. Williams and not for Mr. Parker. He prefers a sound money Republican, one whose record on that question and all others, commands support, to one who has neither ability nor experience, nor any financial principles which can possibly claim respect. No amount of Stewart's blackguardism or Doolittle's demagogism, can change Mr. Babbitt's purpose. A few days ago, the Beloit Graphic made a statement that Clinton Babbitt "is not much of a Williams man after all." Whereupon, Babbitt proceeds to show that he is a Williams man. In a letter to the Beloit Free Press he says: "I voted at Ekiborn as a delegate of the Democratic Convention, for the following resolutions: "We demand that the present standing of our paper currency, which is practically a voluntary suspension of specie payment, shall not be later than January 1, 1879, brought under the control of the United States, in case such attempt at forced redemption shall prove a failure," which we thought at that time would be the inevitable result."

Mr. Babbitt proceeds to say: "Now which is the most consistent course for a Democrat or Republican to take—to vote for a man for Congress who favors Resumption at a specified time, or to advocate the election of a gentleman who stands upon the shaky plank of the Greenback party, which says 'it is the exclusive function of the United States to furnish the circulating medium of the people,' demands the repeal of the National Banking act, and that the power of furnishing the currency be exercised by Congress? Is it consistent, in other words, for a Democrat who thinks we have practically resumed to vote for a resumption candidate in preference to one who advocates 'an absolute fiat money' issued by the government which shall be received for all debts public and private without the promise to pay?" Now I have more hope that the resumption scheme will not prove a failure than I have in a fiat which believes gold and silver has no intrinsic value above paper—that a ton of the latter stamped by Government on the casting vote of a Butler or Cary would be as valuable as a ton of bullion.

"In 1876 the St. Louis convention denounced the Republican party for taking no steps toward resumption. I endorsed the plank and voted for the candidate. Now I do not claim to prefer Mr. Williams to a Democrat, but I vastly prefer to vote for a man who is in favor of resuming January 1, 1879, to one who is opposed to resumption at all."

The Beloit Free Press does not do Daniels any injustice in the following article: "The speech made by Colonel Daniels at the Opera House last Thursday night was the worst specimen of sophistry and fallacious reasoning which has been indicted upon this community during the campaign. Mr. Daniels is well known in this State as having proved a most conspicuous failure, first as a geologist and then as commander of one of the finest of cavalry regiments which ever went into the war, and which through Daniels' fearful lack of judgment, or something worse, was nearly annihilated. And the same lack of balance, or judgment, or depth, or whatever it was which made him such a rattle-brained failure in other things, is a first class qualification for a Greenback orator of the wildest type. When a man says, as he did, that we do not want a 'return of confidence,' and prates about the balance of foreign trade in our favor being an injury to us instead of a blessing, it does seem as if his 'argument' would disgust a school boy of ordinary capacity."

Doolittle showed his audience another trick last evening. He read a letter purporting to have been signed by four persons, requesting him to state whether or not he said in his recent speech at Burlington "that the best idea that ever entered Lincoln's head, was the bullet shot by Booth." Of course the thing is ridiculous in the extreme, that any one in a speech should make a statement of that kind; and the reading of such a trumped-up letter was deeply humiliating for a gentleman in Doolittle's position. But he wanted to touch the Republicans and gain their sympathy, and so conceived the idea of getting up that letter and reading it to the audience for effect's sake. But the people won't be deceived by this, the lowest of all Doolittle's innumerable tricks.

The world will probably never appreciate James R. Doolittle. He does, but the country does not. He modestly admits that if the Government had followed his advice and his only—advice which he gave gratuitously on the floor of the Senate in 1869—there would have been no crash, no hard times, and no depreciation of currency. What a pity that we have only one wise man in the United States.

That earnest man, Judge Doolittle, said in his speech at Lippin's hall that a certain newspaper in town was edited by a young man who didn't understand his business, especially he did not know anything about finance. This is an unjust attack on Bro. Wilson, of the Times, which he should resent.

Dr. De La Matry, the Inflationist who has been elected to Congress in the Indianapolis District, has been a Methodist minister for twenty-nine years. We presume he had "backslidden," as there is not much difference between the gospel of salvation and that of common sense and honest money.

In Beloit: Two gentlemen walking together on the street. First gentleman—"But why didn't Williams accept Stewart's challenge to debate the financial question?" Second gentleman—"Oh, Williams could not do that. He remembered too well the story of a man throwing a dictionary at a skunk, and the results."

Judge Doolittle did not explain his correspondence with Mr. Parker. He should have done so, inasmuch as he has been charged with not only writing the letter, but with writing the answer as well. There would be fun if he would just say that Mr. Parker wrote his own answer.

Congressman Williams will deliver a speech to night at Lippin's hall which every voter in the city should hear. Don't fail to listen to him from beginning to end, and when you leave the hall you will heartily thank yourself that you heard him.

We publish to-day the address of the Republican State Central Committee. It is an earnest and timely appeal to Republicans and Democrats who believe in a sound and honest money. It should be thoroughly read and its counsel heeded.

There were 539,932 votes cast at the recent election in Ohio, and of that number the Inflationists cast only 33,323. The "Ohio idea" came out of the little end of the horn.

ANDERSON.
The Potter Witness Heard from Again—What He Proposes to Disclose.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—It may be a source of relief to Messrs. Tilden and the other coparceners to know that there is likely to be another revival of "Truthful James" Anderson, who was not altogether unconnected with the Potter committee and the mythical Sherman letter. Anderson has notified the Democrats, who coach him and who have had him in charge, that unless some of the ante-mortem promises made to him are forthwith fulfilled, he will make another statement that will smother their nerves. The coparceners who have been hitherto keeping the wolf from Anderson's door, have recently cut off his supplies, and, unless they are resumed, Anderson proposes to say the truth of the old adage, "Virtue is its own reward."

He has gone so far as to make a proposition to Judge Shellabarger, Secretary Sherman's counsel, with reference to unburdening his precious soul. The story is that Anderson gave his testimony before the Potter committee, and exposed to the public his private correspondence with Stanley Matthews and others, for a consideration of $1,000 each and the payment of his counsel fees—ex-Congressman Sypher, of Louisiana, was his counsel—and a promise that he should be taken care of. The arrangement was brought about by a gentleman of newspaper connection, who resided in Washington, and who acted as pilot for the Potter committee, and coached its witness. The authority under which this gentleman acted was acquired, it is understood, from Samuel Tilden himself, and the funds were furnished from his private treasury. After Anderson had given his testimony before the Potter Committee, he was not discharged as a witness until the final adjournment of the committee in New York in August, and during those two months he drew witness fees at the rate of $3 a day. In the meantime, having lost his position as night editor of a Philadelphia paper, he was provided with a place as proof-reader on the Democratic organ in Washington, at a salary of $15 a week, but Mr. Anderson was not contented with his position, considering it too humble and the salary too small for a man of his dignity and resources, but the editor of the organ would not tolerate him in either a reportorial or editorial position, and his connection with the paper was severed. But having exhausted his credit in this direction, Anderson insisted very properly that the contract should be carried out and himself taken care of. He claims that he was repulsed and insulted, and his treatment was not such as a gentleman would endure. He warned his sponsors before the committee that their agreement must be complied with, or he would make other arrangements. Anderson commissioned a friend to make a proposition to Judge Shellabarger, which in effect is that he should either prepare and make oath to a full and complete denial of all his testimony heretofore given, so far as it related to Secretary Sherman, and append a statement of the manner and means by which he was induced to testify, or when the Matthews committee of the Senate reassembled he would withdraw his refusal to testify before it and answer truthfully all questions that should be put to him relating to the Sherman letter how the story was invented and put in circulation; how he was bribed to testify falsely, and reveal fully the modus operandi of the coparceners with whom he had dealings.

ASSASSINATION.
A Socialist Attempts the Life of the King of Spain.
MADRID, Oct. 25.—As the King was driving through a street known as Calle Mayor, this evening, a man in a blouse fired a pistol at him. The King was not touched, and continued on his way to the palace, amid the acclamations of the crowd. The man was immediately seized by the soldiers and taken to prison. The would-be assassin is named Juan Moncasi, aged 23, by trade a cooper, and a native of Terragona. He states that he is a member of the International Society, and his crime was premeditated. He arrived in Madrid the 30th of October. Moncasi was rescued with difficulty for some women who wished to lynch him. All the foreign ministers and diplomats in Madrid congratulated the King on his escape. A solemn Te Deum will be sung to-morrow.

SOUTH CAROLINA.
A Democratic Victory Assured in the Palmetto State.
WASHINGTON, D. C. Oct. 25.—Wade Hampton, in a recent speech, claimed that all but two counties of the State of South Carolina were sure for the Democrats, and these two were only doubtful. The Republicans there and in Washington concede that the return of a single Republican to Congress is no longer expected. The Democratic victory is already won by the practical disfranchisement of the Republicans. A private letter from a gentleman who first went to South Carolina as a surgeon to a Union regiment, and who married and settled there, says: "We are not allowed to hold any meetings. Even our conventions are broken up by the Red-Shirt Democracy. Republicans can no more exercise their political and party rights in South Carolina than they could in Russia or China."

INVESTIGATIONS.
The Potter Fraud Committee Sick of Investigations.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—A gentleman who is regarded as one of the managing men in the Potter investigation, and who has recently returned from a visit to New York, where he has consulted with those who have conducted the investigation thus far, expresses the opinion that the Committee will hold no further sessions for taking testimony. The cipher dispatches are evidently a subject of no interest to Potter and his associates, and the expected investigation of that entire subject will doubtless be conducted by a Senate committee. If the Democrats examine any other witnesses it is expected that Samuel J. Tilden will be among them.

WILLIAMS TO-NIGHT.

Let Lappin's Hall be Packed.
To-night Hon. Charles G. Williams will speak at Lappin's hall, commencing at 8 o'clock. This will give the long-looked-for opportunity of hearing from Mr. Williams' own lips his opinions on the financial and political questions of the day, and the opportunity will be improved by many. Mr. Williams needs no words of commendation, where he is so well known and so highly esteemed. Let all go and hear him. The invitation is to all, and the ladies should not forget that to them also a cordial invitation is extended.

BRIEFLETS.

—Go to Lappin's hall to-night.
—Trying to snow but it's no use.
—Hon. J. B. Cassoday speaks in Beloit this evening.
—Several cases of diphtheria are reported. Look out for your throats.
—Vankirk sells best oysters in the city at 35 cents per can. Try them.
—Dr. O'Leary is expected to soon deliver a course of lectures in this city.
—Eli Hooker, one of Waupun's prominent attorneys, was in the city to-day.
—Vankirk is selling choice varieties of eastern apples, for fall and winter, at $2.25 per barrel. Buy your winter supply.
—A motion for a new trial in the Ohma murder case has been entered and will be called up for argument the first of next week.
—Mrs. Wilmarth publishes a card in another column. Every lady should read it, as she has something of interest to say to all.
—Rev. T. P. Sawin will occupy the Congregational pulpit at Fort Atkinson tomorrow in exchange with Rev. Mr. Montague.
—Justice Prichard had before him to-day several urchins charged with throwing stones. They were discharged for lack of evidence.
—Last Thursday night over fifty of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Fifield surprised them, and helped them celebrate most joyously their silver wedding.
—In the case of Burpee vs. Burton before the Supreme Court the decision of the lower Court in favor of Burpee has been reversed, making a victory for the School Board.
—Miss Gerlie Hemming celebrated her birthday by inviting in a number of her young friends last evening at her home on Jackson street. The occasion was a joyous one.
—The Circuit Court of Green county used up three days this week in trying the case of the State vs. Isaac Myers in which the defendant was charged with rape. The result was an acquittal.
—We are in receipt of a late number of the Transcript of Watsonville, California, containing the announcement that Mr. Fred B. Short, of Marion, Iowa, was married in that place October 16, to Miss Clara E. Clark, formerly of Janesville.
—There have been some changes in the time table of the Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad. The 4:40 a. m. train to Monroe has been discontinued, and the train east heretofore leaving at 12:15 p. m. will leave ten minutes earlier, viz: at 12:05. All should bear these changes in mind.
—Rev. Mr. Chapell, of the Baptist church proposes to soon enter upon the delivery of a course of Sunday evening lectures pertaining to the nineteenth century. The course which he will finish to-morrow evening has been unusually interesting and instructive, and many will gladly listen to another course.
—Mr. J. A. Tice is handling a new rotary dash churn of which he is making rapid sales, as it is very simple and cheap and can be attached to any ordinary churn. He gave a public trial this afternoon of its workings, and succeeded in bringing butter in two minutes by the watch. It is one of the newest and most practical inventions yet put on the market, and should be seen by every farmer.
—F. C. Cook, the jeweler, will have an opening to-night. His new store opposite the postoffice is doubtless the most elegant of its size in the State, and is indeed a perfect little gem of a place. The attractiveness is not monopolized though by the fixtures and fittings. His stock is a fine one, and embraces a large variety of beautiful goods, and is arranged with taste. To-night an opportunity will be given all who desire to see the new store and look at the array of goods, and there will without doubt be a crush. Everybody is invited to drop in and look around.

FUNERAL OF CHARLES A. COLVIN.

Yesterday afternoon the funeral services of Charles A. Colvin were held at the family residence on Court street. A very large number of friends gathered there to pay their tribute of respect to the memory of the departed one, and to show their heartfelt sympathy for the bereaved ones in whose home the light has so suddenly gone out. The casket was beautifully adorned with floral offerings, and loving hands and tender hearts did all that in their power lay to pay tribute to the memory of such a sad occasion. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Royce, rector of Christ Episcopal church, and were touchingly solemn. A quartet consisting of Mrs. H. A. Smith, Mrs. C. E. Moseley, Messrs. D. D. Bennett and Dr. Newman, with Miss Julia Wilson as accompanist, sang very tenderly "Near My God to Thee" and "The Sweet By and By." The rooms were filled with friends and many crowded the yard, and throughout the large gathering was manifested a feeling of true sympathy and sorrow, such as is seldom called forth. After the friends had been given an opportunity of viewing the remains, the procession wended its way to the cemetery. Charles H. Hollister, J. W. Bintliff, George Woodruff, Bob Bostwick, Ed. Bemie, and Will Watson were very appropriately selected to serve as bearers. The whole force of the Gazette office were in attendance and were appropriate ladders of mourning, though it indicated but faintly the feeling which crowded the hearts of all with whom the deceased had thus been closely connected. A very large number of friends followed the remains to their last resting place. The event by which this young life has been ended has struck with sorrow the hearts of hundreds and the memory of his kindly words and friendly deeds will long be cherished.

"THAT HUSBAND OF MINE."

Mrs. Lunn was brought to the city yesterday from Waupun, by Officer Comstock to answer to a charge of setting fire to her husband's house, in the town of Janesville, which burned on the tenth of this month. She was brought before Justice Prichard this morning. Mr. Hooker, of Waupun, appeared as her attorney. She was at once discharged, there being no evidence to hold her. It appears that she and her husband have lived unhappily together for years, when a short time ago she left him and went to her relatives in Waupun, where she is very respectfully connected and has many friends. She says that he has been trying to get her to live with him again, and that on her refusing to do so he threatened to get revenge by having her sent to the penitentiary. He was the only accuser, and it seems had no evidence to brace up the charge. The house which burned was really a shanty, of no great value, and it is supposed that the fire caught from the stove-pipe which ran up through the roof without any protection. The day on which the blaze occurred she had been ironing and had a very hot fire in the stove and it looks reasonable that the fire thus originated.

WILLIAMS AT MAGNOLIA.

Hon. Charles G. Williams had a rousing meeting at the church in Magnolia last evening. Those who had been tinctured with Greenbackism were represented, and listened closely to the logical arguments put forth by Mr. Williams. Elder Howard presided, and introduced the speaker. He was cordially received and enthusiastically encouraged throughout his speech. An amusing little incident occurred during the progress of the speech. When Mr. Williams had shown up the contradictions of the triple platform on which Mr. Parker was trying to stand, a dog in the hall commenced to howl. Mr. Williams said he did not wonder that even the dogs should howl! at such an attempt to ride three platforms at once, and it was safer to trust the sense of a Magnolia dog than the average greenback theorist. The hit took happily. The Republicans at Magnolia pay the meeting was one of the most successful ever held. They feel greatly encouraged at the prospects, and claim that they have the facts and figures to show that Magnolia will surely give a heavy Republican majority. Many Democrats there are bound to vote for honest money and leave Parker out in the cold.

MUCH ADO ABOUT DOOLITTLE.

Last night Lappin's hall was well-filled by an audience made up of persons of all shades of political belief, who wanted to hear what Hon. J. R. Doolittle had to say on the questions of the day. He spoke for about an hour and half. In the opening he gave his version of the history of the demonization of silver, and then proceeded to tackle the national bank system, and advocated the substitution of treasury notes for the national bank notes. These two points formed the chief topics of talk, and in conclusion he offered a few personal explanations. He was listened to carefully by the audience but did not succeed in enthusing them to any great degree.

THANKS.

Mr. R. L. Colvin and family, join with Mrs. Agnes Sherer and family in taking this means of expressing their heartfelt thanks for the many, many acts of kindness and words of sympathy, of which they have been the recipients during their great bereavement, and they desire to say to each and all that these expressions, so greatly needed and so generously given, will ever be the occasion of their grateful remembrance.

THE WEATHER.

The thermometer at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 34 degrees above and at 2 o'clock this afternoon at 38 degrees above. A very light fall of snow. One year ago to-day at corresponding hours it stood at 45 and 55 above.
The indications to-day are for the upper lake region, under Mississippi valleys, partly cloudy weather, possible occasional rain or snow, northerly winds, falling followed by stationary or lower or falling barometer.

Undertakers all over the country are doing a thriving business on account of lamp accidents.

A CHANCE TO SEE "URLINA."
Next Wednesday evening the Hyers Sisters will appear at the Opera House in the opera bouffe extravaganza of "Urlina." Those who saw the Hyers Sisters when they were here before in the musical drama of "Out of Bonafide" were completely captivated by them, and those and many more will gladly improve the opportunity of seeing and hearing them in this new role, which is the happiest hit they have yet made.

"Urlina" is the story of a banished prince (Miss Anna Hyers) who is sent to a desert island by a cruel uncle (Mr. John W. Luca), and a usurper of the throne at that. An old witch (Miss Dora S. King) swears mortal enmity to the usurper because he sold her children into slavery; and she incites Prince Urliska (Miss Emma Hyers), the son of the usurper, to seek and rescue the captive prince, who is found alone with Nubiana (Mr. Willie Lyle), a gushing female companion, and who, till the Prince's advent had never "seen a man." The reader will understand that the Princess is rescued, only to be arraigned with her lover before the bad King, who sentences them to death by slow starvation. A faithful man (Mr. Billy Kersand), who has undergone all sorts of previous changes, and makes a great deal of fun, rescues the pair; and the old witch brings matters to a crisis, forcing the usurper to abdicate for the Princess, the rightful Queen.

Wherever Urlina has been presented it has met with wonderful success, and the press speaks in the highest terms of it. The seats are now for sale at Moseley's and can be reserved without extra charge.

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL RALLY.

Another enthusiastic Republican meeting was held at Spring Valley Corners on Thursday evening. Mr. E. M. Hyzer, of this city, was first introduced, and confined his remarks entirely to the currency. Mr. R. J. Burdge, candidate for the Assembly in the First District, then made a few remarks, followed by J. B. Cassoday, who made one of the most exhaustive arguments on the financial question that has yet been made on that subject. Every branch of the subject was most thoroughly and ably handled. The speeches of these gentlemen cannot but have the effect of encouraging those steadfast in the faith, strengthening the wavering and convincing all reasonable Greenbackers and Democrats.

HONORED TEMPLARS.

An Undeniable Truth.

You deserve to suffer, and if you lead a miserable, unsatisfactory life in this beautiful world, it is entirely your own fault and there is only one excuse for you—your unreasonable prejudice and skepticism, which has killed thousands. Personal knowledge and common sense reasoning, will soon show you that Green's August Flower will cure you of Liver Complaint, or Dyspepsia, with all its miserable effects, such as sick headache, palpitation of the heart, sour stomach, habitual constiveness, dizziness of the head, nervous prostration, low spirits, &c. Its sales now reach every town on the Western Continent and not a Druggist but will tell you of its wonderful cures. You can buy a Sample Bottle for 10 cents. Three doses will relieve you. decided-weakness

Fever and Ague Cured for 50 Cents.

Dr. Swayne's Fever and Ague Pills, (without calomel or quinine), are a quick and sure cure in every case for ague and fever, intermittent and remittent fever, and all diseases having their origin from Malaria. They are a great tonic and preventive as well as cure of all complaints peculiar to malarious, marshy and miasmatic districts. They act on the liver, and brace up the system to a vigorous healthy condition. Notwithstanding these pills are sold for one-half the price that other ague cures are sold for, yet we will warrant them as effective in all cases as any pills or mixture, for the price or compound be what they may; and being entirely free from all minerals, their use leaves no bad effects, as in the case of many other remedies. Sent by mail to any address on receipt of price, (in currency or postage stamps), 50 cents a box, three boxes $1.25, six boxes $2.50. Address Dr. Swayne & Son, 330 North Sixth St., Philadelphia. 1y30deodwly-4

A Pardonable Pride.

Promptly meet people to delay, by any laudable means that science affords, the evidences of physical decay. Who that is in perfect health would not match the bright eye, the active mind, and other appearances of youthful vigor, with the luxuriance, the rich color, and beauty of youthful hair? Parker's Hair Restorer stands pre-eminent as an elegant hair dressing, and by its healthful action on the roots not only promotes a luxuriant growth of the young hair, but unfailingly restores gray or faded hair to the original youthful color, giving a soft, rich and lustrous appearance of great beauty. No other preparation so effectively removes Dandruff or stops falling of the hair; its cooling and healing action entirely curing itching and humors of the scalp, and keeping the skin clean, white and healthy. It is perfectly harmless, exquisitely perfumed, and contains nothing that will soil the skin or gum the hair. It is not a dye, and is unequaled for excellence and purity. Buy a bottle from your druggist, A. J. Roberts, and test its merits. 1y24awwtecp30
